Equipment Problems plague PBM cleanup

By STEVE O'LEARY
ANP Staff Writer

The cleanup of approximately 1.5 million tons of cyanide-tainted plastic film chips from 17 abandoned semitrailers and two roll-off truck boxes, located behind 10100 Harrison Road, was scheduled to resume this week after numerous shut-downs due to equipment malfunctions and repairs had slowed or stopped progress for over two weeks.

Robert Buckley, one of the on-site coordinators from the United States Environmental Protection Agency, said Monday that "progress is undoubtedly going slow, slower than we had anticipated. As soon as one problem was solved, another seemed to develop."

The latest setback was due to a leak in the treatment vessel, thought to have been caused by an unanticipated chemical reaction which melted part of it, causing the leak.

Buckley said that repairs were scheduled to be finished and work set to begin again early this week. "We originally hoped to have two vessels online a month ago, but both were damaged in shipment to Romulus from Chicago.

"About eight percent of the chips have been treated so far," Buckley said, adding that "we are extremely disappointed with the way things have gone. We haven't even seen two (treatment vessels) working together, so I can't say how much longer the cleanup may take."

In the cleaning process, film chips believed to be tainted with the poison are placed in an alkaline bath with chlorine in it, and then agitated. Then, according to the EPA, the treated chips are tested for traces of cyanide and if it is still present, they are put back into the treatment vessel. If not, they are taken to a landfill.

Attorney William Matakas, owner of the property, is currently involved in lawsuits against the former tenants, who were partners in PBM, a company that recovered silver from x-ray film.

He is seeking back rent that was allegedly unpaid, costs of restoring the property and lost rent. "So far, this has cost me about $34,000, approximately $15,000 of which was out of pocket expenses and $12,000 in back rent owed by PBM's three partners: Richard Pint, Frank Bykowski and Dr. Edward Martin."

While the EPA is paying for the current cleanup, it is expected that they will try to recoup the money from either Matakas or PBM.

PBM had been cited last fall on charges of violating standards set to protect against harmful pollution. According to Buckley, that was an attempt to force PBM to clean up the site. The company closed down shortly after, leaving the toxic materials apparently abandoned on the rear of the property.

EPA officials had earlier called the site an "immediate and substantial danger." Matakas said that "I think that upon reflection, people have seen that it has not presented as big a problem to any of the neighbors as was first feared," adding that "hopefully, it will be cleaned up by the end of the month."

low turnout could be looked at in a good way," Langley said, adding that "it could mean that the voters have been happy with the current board members."

Dan Bales, the current president of the board finished 170 votes ahead of the pack, saying afterwards that "victory always feels good!"

"We (the board) have been busy trying to improve the educational environment in Romulus, both in employee relations, program rebuilding and program expansion."

The school board has been deadlocked in negotiations with the teachers for nearly a year, but Bales is hopeful. "Talks are continuing," he said, "but you have to try and remain optimistic that there will be a breakthrough."

Of the competition, Bales said "I'd like to congratulate the other winner and tell the losers that they both fought good battles."

Romulus Superintendent of Schools Dr. William Bedell said Monday afternoon that "a light voter turnout could mean anything goes; it could work in anyone's favor or against anyone. A small number of people could sway the election in that case."

Bales, Langley get voters' nod for school board

By STEVE O'LEARY
ANP Staff Writer

When the results were in Monday night, incumbents Dan Bales and Sandra Langley retained their seats on the Romulus Board of Education for four year terms. It will be the second full term for both.

Bales had 796 votes and Langley 626. Challengers Todd Lee Hauter and Fred Morris Hay fought hard to take the seats away, but only Hay presented a real fight, losing to Langley by only nine votes. Hay had 617 votes to Hauter's 135.

"I'm just so glad it's over," said Langley when the final ballots were tallied, "it was close and it was a tough fight, but I feel great now. My competition was very good and everyone had a real concern and honestly wanted to help the community...but I'm very glad I won. This election was extremely important to me."

When it was over and Langley had thanked her family and supporters, she expressed her concern about the low turnout at the polls, saying that she would like to find a way to get more people involved in school matters. "But, in one way, the

City processes refunds of '84 tax penalty charges

By STEVE O'LEARY
ANP Staff Writer

A total of $2,762 in improperly charged late penalty fees is currently being processed to be refunded and will be split among 234 Romulus residents.

City council voted 6-1 to concur with treasurer John Lewkowicz' recommendation to reimburse residents who were charged the penalty in 1984, with Councilman Barry Baumann the dissenting vote.

The late fee, Lewkowicz says was charged to tardy taxpayers for the fiscal term from July 1, 1983 through June 30, 1984, had been amended by law but was not known to either Lewkowicz, the city council or Mayor Beverly McAnally, herself a former treasurer. In the past, the treasurer would often request the council to extend the due date without penalty; now, council must have action in order to charge the penalty.

Lewkowicz contends that council should have brought the matter up for the extension, while most members of the city council say that the treasurer had the responsibility of doing so.

Penalty fees charged during February of 1985 have already been refunded. This will complete the refunds collected due to the misunderstanding for all of 1984.

At the May 28 meeting of the city council, Lewkowicz described the action as "pertaining to the 1984 taxes that were collected illegally." He went on to say that they were collected by his office "because you (the city council) and the mayor directed me to."

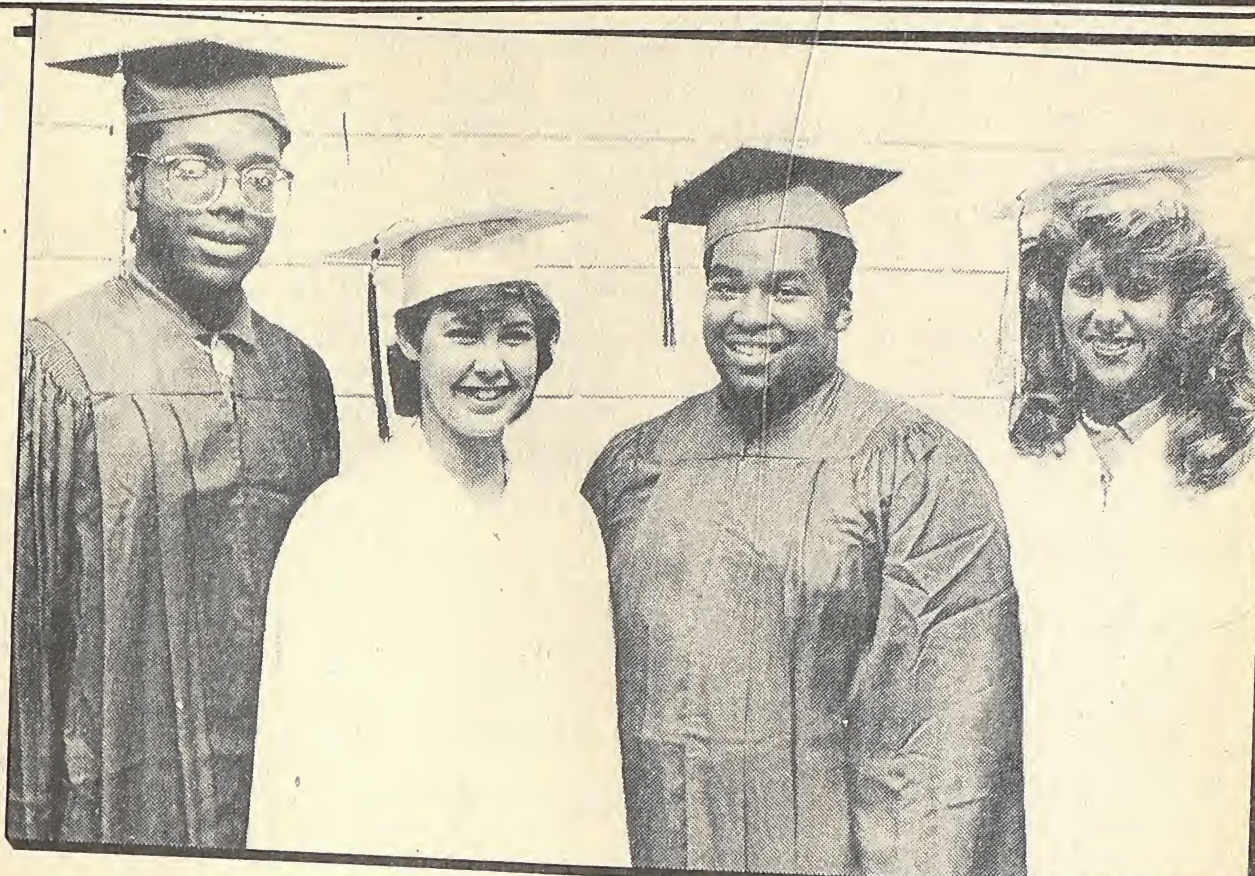

Councilman Barry Baumann objected to Lewkowicz' assertions, and told the treasurer "you collected it, and if it was collected illegally, it was by you, not by this council or anyone else." He added that he understood Lewkowicz and State Representative Jim Kosteva had gone to Lansing and talked to the assistant attorney general "and he told you that he strongly recommended you not return the fees for 1983 and '84, because it would cost far more of the taxpayer's money for the office work and postage, and since it was an error made in good faith and there were no complaints filed."

Lewkowicz said he was not told not to refund the money, "but he (the assistant attorney general) would not give me anything in writing because he was unsure of what should be done in this case."

According to Lewkowicz, the refunds are being processed now and should be received by the residents "this week or next."

The refund issue is bound to remain controversial for a time, since Lewkowicz says he may ask council to let him refund the 1983 penalty fees as well. On the other side, McAnally said Tuesday that her finance director has reportedly found a $500 discrepancy which, she was told, "should also be refunded."

Class of '85

Kid's college bowl

According to the scoreboard, the final score was Harvard, 405 points, and Michigan State, 265. For once, it seems those Ivy Leaguers topped the Spartans.

And where did this action take place? At Halecreek School in Romulus, and, as has probably been guessed, the participants weren't really from Harvard or Michigan State, but were actually 12 members of the sixth grade.

According to principal Art McPharlin, this unique educational contest, which was held on May 24, was conducted "like the television program of the same name on channel nine."

"Students, acting as scholars, were asked questions in science, mathematics and history," McPharlin said. Points were awarded for each correct answer.

When the dust had settled, judges Mary Ann Banks and Donna Fife tallied the correct answers and Harvard came out on top. "Actually, all the scholars are winners!" McPharlin said, adding that "they studied a wealth of material and each was presented a beautiful academic trophy purchased by the Halecreek Parent-Teacher Guild.

Representing Harvard University were: Ricky Rogala (captain), Thomas Anderson, Susie Creith, Nathan Henning, Cliff Holmes and Mark Ross. Scholars representing Michigan State University were: David Wilkinson (captain), Dow Davidson, Chad Garrison, Jeffrey O'Connor, Jennifer Shellenbarger and Stacey Stratton.

Safe and sane Senior class earns praise

The Romulus High School graduating class of 1985 recently held its senior prom at the Roostertail Restaurant in Detroit. The gala affair was not only a success socially, but it earned the Romulus students accolades from the management and employees of the establishment as well.

Tom Schoenith, the owner of the restaurant stopped in to say hello to the students and provide some extra niceties, including soft drinks and decorations, according to Phyllis Cebula, a Romulus High School teacher and co-sponsor of the event. The other co-sponsor, Mark Anderson, said later that the prom was as nice as they had seen in many years of sponsorship. He added that the cooperation and help from the Roostertail was "outstanding."

According to Cebula and Anderson, Schoenith, two of the servers and the evening supervisor went out of their way to report that they felt the Romulus seniors were the best-behaved group of young men and women they had ever seen as part of a prom at the Roostertail.

The sponsors say that the supervisor told them it "was usual to find empty liquor bottles and beer cans stashed about the restaurant and parking lot after this type of event." He went on to say that "in my years of working here, this is the first group where no alcoholic containers were found after the function."

Added Cebula, "teachers in Romulus have known for a long time what a great group of kids we have. It's nice when outsiders become aware of it too."

Fond memories

This year's senior prom was at the Roostertail Restaurant on the river front in Detroit, where the group of Romulus young men and women were lauded as the best-behaved group ever to hold a prom at the popular nightclub by owner Tom Schoenith and others. Way to go seniors!

ANP announces promotions

Susan Bachand

Sue McDonald

Steve O'Leary

Christine Rizk

Several promotions and re-assignments have been announced by David J. Willett, publisher of Associated Newspapers.

Beginning next week, Susan Bachand will assume the title of executive editor of the six Associated publications which include The Wayne Eagle, The Westland Eagle, The Canton Eagle, The Inkster-Ledger Star, The Belleville Enterprise and The Romulus Roman. Bachand will assume responsibility for the general content and design of the papers and handle the management of the editorial department.

A graduate of Mt. Mary College, Bachand holds both a bachelors and masters degree. She has been honored by the Michigan Press Association six times for editorial excellence and outstanding achievements in journalism. A member of the Associated staff for three years, she was responsible for the recent redesign of the papers.

"Susan Bachand has become an integral part of the success formula of Associated Newspapers," Willett said in making the announcement of her re-assignment. "During her tenure with the company, she has demonstrated time and time again that she has the fiber of a 'true' newspaper career person.

"Susan has drive, talent, creativity and leadership skills that will, I know, allow her to excel with her staff to a high level of excellence that will greatly please our readers," Willett continued.

Named as editor of the six publications was Sue McDonald. A Westland resident, McDonald is a graduate of John Glenn High School and earned her bachelors degree in journalism at Wayne State University in 1972. She joined the Associated staff in 1973 and has worked as a copy editor, reporter and news editor. Following a brief hiatus in 1983, she returned to her Westland city beat and was promoted to news editor for the second time in April of 1984.

"Sue McDonald is being promoted to a position which will allow her to grow even more than she has in the years she has been with us. Sue knows how to make things happen, and has already proven to be a vitally important part of our day-to-day news function. She deserves the opportunity to show us what she can do and I am confident that she will excel. I am very pleased that she has accepted the editor's position with us," Willett said.

In her new capacity, McDonald will be responsible for the daily operations of the news department and will also provide news coverage for the City of Wayne, moving from her home base of Westland where she has been the reporter for a number of years.

Taking responsibility for Westland will be Staff Writer Rose Mary Reiz. Reiz attended both Wayne State University and Schoolcraft Community College prior to joining the Associated staff in 1983. She has been the Canton Township reporter until this reassignment.

"Rose Mary Reiz is destined for great things in the field of journalism," Willett stated emphatically. "Her new assignment in Westland comes at a time when that city is of growing importance to us. Rose did an extraordinary job in Canton and will handle this exciting community with a flair that our readers will find both stimulating and refreshing. She is a dedicated journalist and will become an increasingly important part of our news team," he added.

Moving to Canton Township will be Staff Writer Steve O'Leary who joined the Associated Staff several years ago as a part time columnist. He attended the University of Michigan at Dearborn and has also served in the capacity of part time photographer.

O'Leary became a full-time reporter last year, assuming the City of Romulus news responsibilities. Since then, he has several fast-breaking and exclusive stories to his credit.

"Steve O'Leary has come a long way since he first joined us as a part timer," Willett noted. "He has a great deal of ability that, in his new Canton beat, he will have the opportunity to refine. Canton Township is and has been important to us and his move to this vital area is a sign of our faith in him. I'm looking forward to watching Steve deal with this important new assignment," Willett said.

Joining the Associated staff as a full-time reporter will be Christine Rizk who will assume the responsibility of the Romulus city news coverage. Rizk earned her communications degree at Wayne State University in 1982 and joined the Associated staff this year.

Rizk's former duties in Inkster will be assumed by new staffer Ray Day. Day is presently attending Wayne State University where he is pursuing his communications degree. He has been acting as the cable programmer and news writer for several areas served by Community Vision Cable, an affiliate of Associated Newspapers.

The 'Bad News Blues'

It's the same old song...sung to a different melody, but always with the same refrain, "The Bad News Blues" as we've titled this sad lament, seems to be an occupational hazard of the newspaper business. Recently, we've been hearing this tune again, always, it seems, interpreted by someone complaining that a news release, birth announcement, serviceman's graduation or promotion or community calendar announcement didn't find space in the edition of that week.

"There's nothing in your paper but bad news," they'll shout, screech, whine, accuse or sob, depending on the degree of anger or frustration they are experiencing.

We plead guilty, but with extenuating circumstances. There is, indeed, bad news in these newspapers. Lots of it. Our readers, as an example, were the first to know about the arrest and charges of homosexual activity at the I-275 rest stop, this paper provided coverage of a number of charges of criminal sexual activity against children in this area and we were relentless bordering on redundant in our coverage of the rapist on the Canton bike path. We have reported murders, arsons, robberies, kidnappings and just about every other crime against society in these pages.

Why? Why do we appear to dwell on these horrible incidents of crime...why are we printing accounts of situations not usually even discussed in polite society? Do we concentrate on bad news to sell papers? to entertain? to stimulate the libidos of those who savor that type of titillation? to flex our muscles and show our power? No, none of these accusations even comes near the mark. We publicize the bad news and crime for the same reason that we exist...to educate, to inform and to serve.

If our front page story about the gruesome details of a child's mistreatment at the hands of a parent makes one doctor at a hospital suspicious of a baby's "fall" or one teacher take action concerning a child's bruises, then we are doing our job.

If only one woman in the area begins to lock her doors, or becomes more cautious about her safety alone at night, then we are doing our job.

If one tiny kindergartner remembers the warnings his mother gave him about riding with strangers when offered a ride by an unknown man, then we are a success.

We could go on and on. The point being there is bad news. There is crime and everyone is a potential victim. You deserve to know that these hazards exist. You deserve to be warned, so that you might protect yourself and your loved ones. Warning you through the news, bad though it may be, is our job.

What of the political news we provide? "I'm sick of reading about the mayor and council in my town fighting all the time. Isn't there something good going on in my city?" That is another version of the "Bad News Blues" that we've heard a lot of lately. Yes, there is good news in that city--and we do print it. But voters are going to have to go to the polls and vote for civic leaders again. They need to know how the ones they chose the last time are doing...how they are spending their time and the taxpayers' money.

Adverse publicity is something akin to the Black Plague with politicians. It is our role to keep you, the public, informed of the actions of those whom you have elected. If only one politician considers the damaging effects public opinion might have on his career when contemplating an action which he knows full well might not best serve his constituents, then we are doing our job.

We're here to educate you, to inform you and to serve you. Sometimes we even entertain you while we're about it. All the items you find in our paper are geared toward that goal. We bring you the Community Calendar, promotions, servicemen, graduations, and a host of other informative community service type of news.

We do bring you heart-touching features when we find them. Those are the stories our reporters fight to do. You see, we like the good news, too. We enjoy reporting on the good things that happen. But the bad news is there. It always has been, and it always will be.

It's our job to make you aware of the good things that happen in your hometown--and the bad. An ostrich cannot protect itself from a predator with its head stuck in the sand...and there are predators out there lurking and waiting for the uninformed and the innocent.

Think of the number of elderly who have been victimized by con artists. Had they known the schemes and read about the incidents occurring within the area, they might be protected by that knowledge.

We also hear about our use of "graphic details"--we don't feel that we're guilty of this one at all. Every reporter and editor here clearly understands that this is, and will remain, a family newspaper. We do stress the violence involved in some crimes--we do report the gruesome details of some incidents, and we do it to emphasize the danger that you are in and the real horror you face.

The "Bad News Blues" may be a sad lament, but it's a song we've learned to live with, although not comfortably.

We're doing our job...bad news and all.

Graduation day

Saturday last, I attended my son Douglas' graduation exercise at Crisler Arena in Ann Arbor. It was an emotional experience for me as it no doubt was for the parents of each of the more than 500 graduating seniors of the Wayne Memorial High School Class of 1985.

To see my own son decked out in his robe, playing his trombone with the band that has meant so much to him, and crossing the stage to be handed his diploma...I confess, it choked ol' Dad up but good.

The festivities Saturday were absolutely grand. The young ladies wore gold robes and each was handed a yellow rose as they were seated on one side of the arena floor. The young men were all in blue robes and sat on the other side. They streamed into the arena in pairs, men and women, and took their places in the sea of blue and gold robes, all there to celebrate a great victory. They had done it! They had won! They had accomplished that which even they wondered if they could. They have reached the finish line of their journey through the maze of teachers, classes and tests. And now the future was theirs. They are the class of 1985...they will be friends forever!

It was a warm day, but the magnificent facilities at U of M's Crisler made it more than tolerable. The school board members and faculty were on hand. Dr. Dennis O'Neill, superintendent of the Wayne-Westland Schools and School Board President Kathy Chorbajian delivered a few well chosen words. Class President Steve Johnson spoke briefly, and before we knew it, the seniors were launched into a higher orbit in life...to circle until they find their place in society to land.

I remember my graduation in 1961 from Wayne Memorial. Ceremonies were in what is now the old gym. It doesn't compare with the accutremments and staging at Crisler these 24 years later.

In 1961, as I recall, we thought how great it was to have that beautiful gym for our graduation exercises. I guess in every age we marvel at the present and wonder about tomorrow.

High school and college graduates across the land are no doubt basking in the marvels of their recent accomplishment, having earned a diploma or degree, and yet, still wondering what lies ahead.

For all the graduates, it is a period of their lives when they are trying to find themselves. They are trying to learn what they want to be. It is a time of awakening to the vast possibilities now open to them. They now have choices, and few limits, particularly in our society.

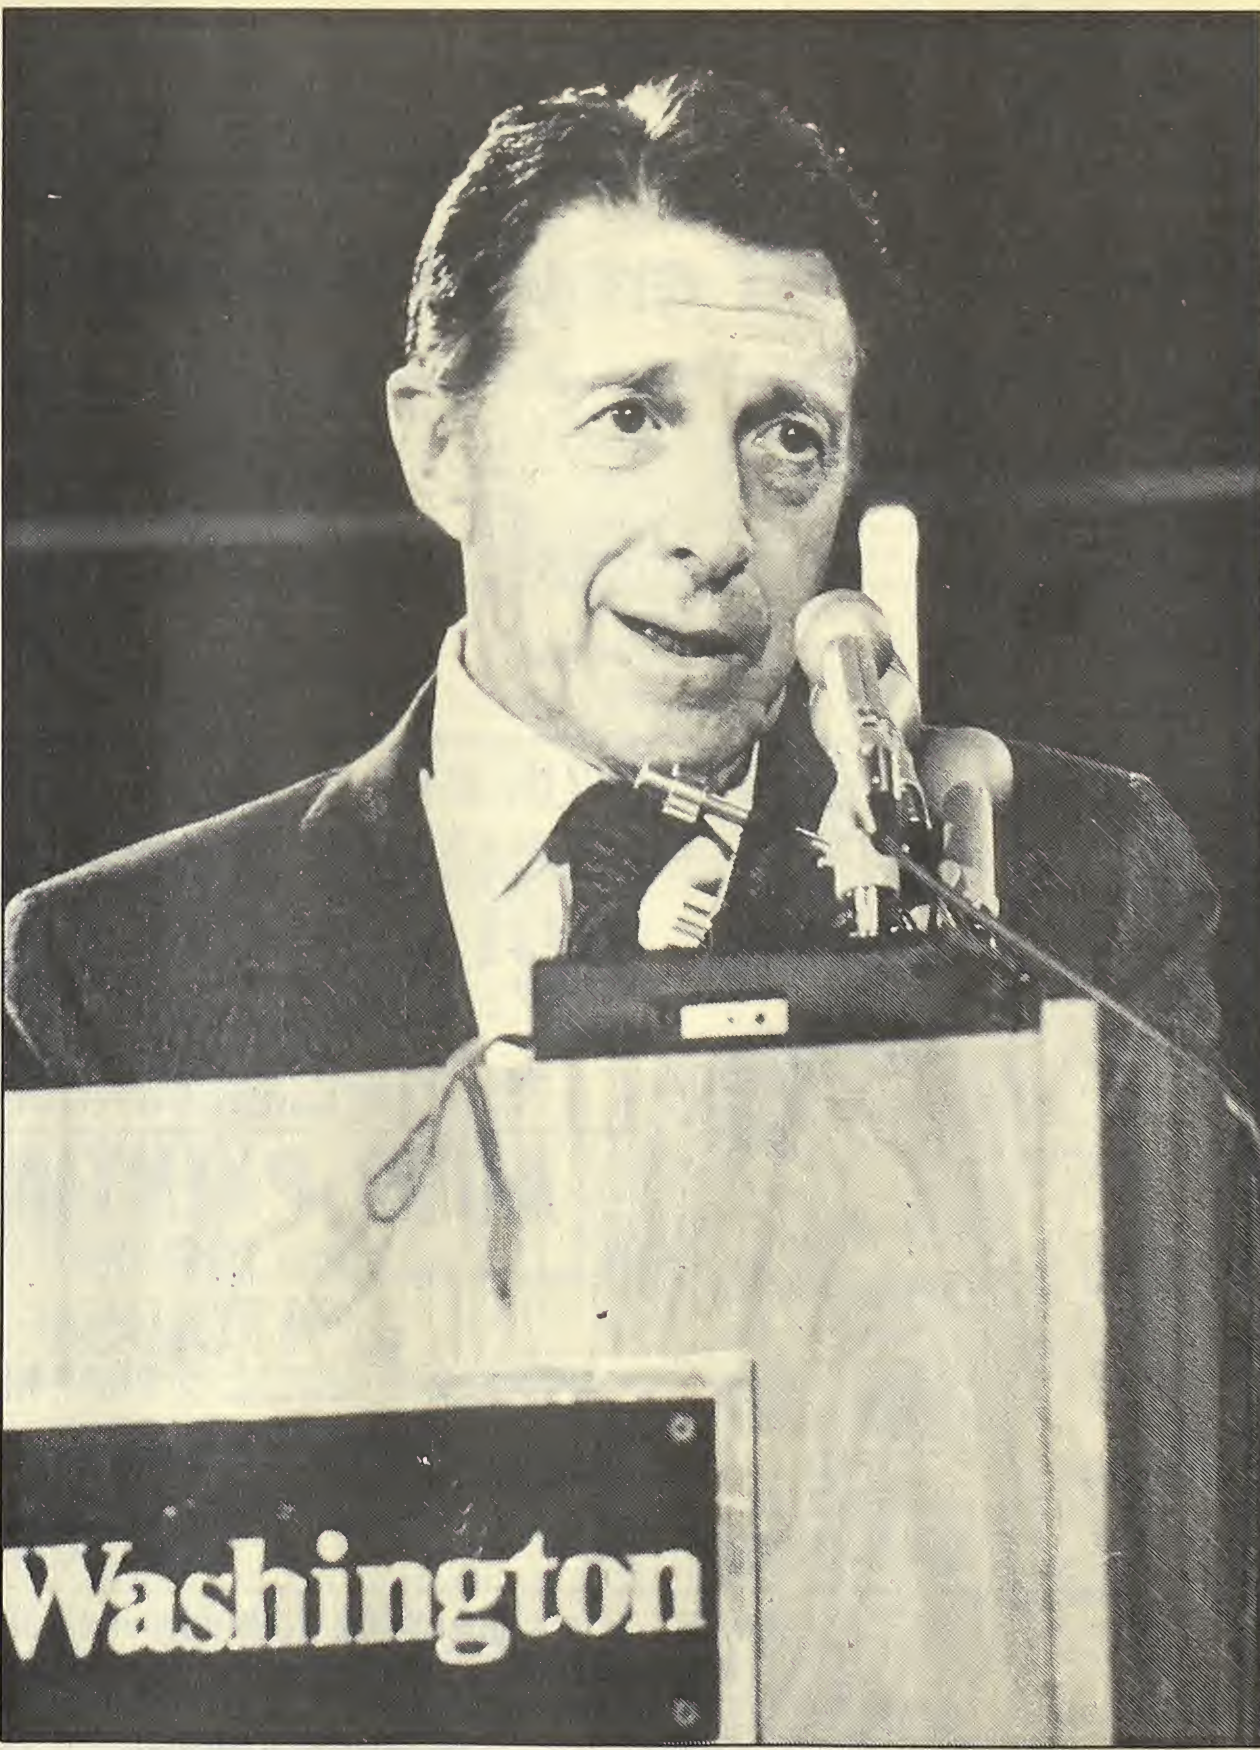

With the ability to choose comes some frightening prospects. "What if I choose, but choose badly?" grads ask themselves. "What if I select a field of study, go to college, then later, after investing one to four years of my life, decide I don't like the day -to-day realities of working in the field I have chosen?" "What if I select a field I truly enjoy, spend four years at a college or university and then discover that there are no jobs available in my field?"

Friends and relatives don't make it any easier. "What are you going to do now that you're out of school?" they ask. "Which college are you going to?" "Are you going into the military service?" "Are you going to work in the family business?"

They mean no harm, but they ask painful, probing questions that are sometimes intimidating. Graduates feel that they must give them an answer and one that will sound good to them or else they will frown while verbalizing their disapproval, and that can be even more painful.

Run for pride

To the Editor:

Romulus hosted an exciting event on May 18, 1985. A 10K running race took place and 240 competed in the event.

The name of the race was the Romulus Community Pride 10K, and what an appropriate title! The town was decked out in colorful banners, the high school band entertained visitors, Romulus police and reserves provided traffic control, friendly neighbors cheered on the runners and local firms provided refreshments at the finish line. Runners from all over southeastern Michigan came to Romulus for the event, and everyone left with a warm and friendly feeling for the city.

At least 50 volunteers were needed to make the race a safe and enjoyable event. People were needed for jobs like registering entrants, giving water to thirsty runners along the route, providing first aid and assisting in traffic control. On Saturday morning, over 50 Romulus residents came forward, and success of the event was guaranteed.

In closing, we would like to thank the residents of Romulus for their excellent support of the Community Pride 10K Run.

Sincerely,
William R. Smith

And so, our graduates give answers with which they are not confident. Flip answers like, "Oh, I'm going to drop out and smoke dope" usually earn them a lecture from embarrassed parents, whom they never wished to hurt.

It is frustrating to be a child, having everyone making decisions for you, telling you what you can and cannot do, must and must not do, "But now, here I am," the graduate thinks to himself standing in line, walking up the stairs to the stage. "They called my name," and as friends and family cheer and applaud, "Someone is shaking my hand" and with the other they thrust a rolled piece of paper into their possession. "Congratulations," they say, and the graduate, slightly numb, is thinking, "My God, it finally happened, I can't believe it." It's usually as though it is happening to someone else and they were watching it all on television. But it is them, this is their day, they have graduated. How exciting, how awesome...how frightening.

They leave the stage knowing that their life is changing. They tremble at the thought of the choices they must now make, but feel the exhilaration of having accomplished one of life's most important goals.

Now they will become more aware than ever of the ease of their lives when they were younger and parents were there to make decisions for them. Now they don't have to do what parents want them to do any longer. Oh, parents will certainly try to tell them what to do. Yes, its because parents love them, and want the best for them, and... because they are use to it being that way.

They will have a hard

Ducks vs dogs

To the Editor:

I find it rather incongruous that the Van Buren Township Board is so set against duck hunting on Belleville Lake when there haven't been any citizen objections, and at the same time will allow the sale of animals from the pound for laboratory experiments.

No one on the board will even give a reason for either one. Of course, the original board which banned hunting on the lake was against all hunting.

Sponsor is mad

To The Editor:

I would like to say how disgruntled I am that I am co-sponsoring a woman's softball team in the City of Wayne.

The other sponsor and I had to put up a $420 entry fee. Then we provided the team with uniforms. Since the beginning of the season it seems like everything is stacked against us. We were made to forfeit a game for two minutes. The team was walking onto the field, but that didn't count. Another game was allowed to start five minutes late because one of the players was in the restroom at the Recreation Center.

We were forced to play a make-up game on a different night than we normally play, even though we told the person running the program we would be short a lot of players who had out of town commitments. One team was allowed to reschedule a game because of a bowling banquet.

My experience with the softball program with the Wayne Recreation Department is one of inconsistency, incompetence, and indecision. I feel for as steep as the entry fee is, and it's hard at that rate for teams to find sponsors, that the people running the program could be more cooperative and consistent in their decision making. I've heard of at least two teams talking about leaving Wayne Softball because of the way the program is run.

As a business person in the City of Wayne we are always trying to help Wayne and generate goodwill in the town. It's a shame that facets of the Recreation in the City are run in such a way as to make teams feel they need to leave and play somewhere else. The Recreation Department has not shown any enthusiasm for wanting to make teams want to stay.

I hope the people running the Recreation Department take a hard look at how the softball program is being run and keep this program together. After all, any age, men or women, enjoys playing softball.

Campaign protested

To The Editor:

One of my biggest pet peeves is attending a parade or other community function and seeing politicians use them to bolster their campaign for office. Such was the case this past Memorial Day at the annual Wayne-Westland parade and the politician was Nancy Neal who is currently a member of the Westland City Council and who recently announced her candidacy for Mayor of Westland.

The Wayne-Westland city officials, who marched in the parade, did so together at the beginning of the parade with no signs or fanfare or any kind to announce who they were. It gave one the impression that they were there leading others in the parade, as the community leaders, to remember those who gave their lives for our country, which was the intent of the parade.

Far behind the community officials, near the end of the parade, came Nancy Neal marching ahead of a car which had a large sign attached to each side which read, "Neal-Westland City Council." Even though the sign didn't say "Neal for Mayor of Westland," it was very obvious she wanted the spectators to remember her name. Besides marching, she also was busy throwing candy to the kids.

Trav Griffin, another Westland City Councilman, also announced his candidacy for Mayor of Westland but he did not do any campaigning during the parade. He marched as a city official in a group with the others. I would like to commend him for doing so.

Neal is still a city official and she could have had the courtesy to march with her fellow council members for a common community cause and saved her campaigning until later. She, apparently, considers this as being strong and independent as she has described herself so many times. She hasn't marched in a Memorial Day parade in at least three years and I wonder if she would have marched in this one if she wan't running for mayor. The least she could have done was have an American flag or two on her support car.

Maybe what the community should do is sponsor a politicians' parade on a Sunday in late August and invite all those who are running for an office, including senators, representatives, and the governor to march in it. It could be coordinated by the League of Women Voters, or some other community group. The parade could end at the city hall parking lots, Jaycee Park, or some other large area big enough for each politician to set up a booth of his or her own-Hyde Park style. Each politician could have his or her own little area where they could get on their soap boxes and talk their little hearts out. The public could stop and leave each booth at their own discretion. Community clubs could even set up refreshment stands and earn money for their projects. I think this would be a very entertaining day for those who chose to attend it.

Regardless of what the politicians do between now and election time, I hope they can think of something more original than throwing candy to the kids; maybe they could throw dollar bills to the taxpayers.

Scout nets Gold Award

In 1980, the Girl Scout Award was introduced as the highest award in Girl Scouting. It symbolizes outstanding accomplishments in leadership, community service, career planning and personal development.

This year, one local Huron Valley Girl Scout has completed the requirements for the Gold Award. The local 1985 recipient is Christine Reindel, daughter of Stan and Rose Stonik of Belleville.

To earn this award, she had to design and carry out a plan of activities covering community service, career exploration, specialized interest projects and leadership skills.

New Japanese 'Super Pill' Insures Rapid Weight-Loss No Dieting — Eat All You Want, Pill Does All The Work

BEVERLY HILLS, CA — An exciting new "all natural" weight-loss "Super" Pill developed by the JMA (Japanese Medical Association) has just been approved for distribution in the United States. Reportedly, it can guarantee that you will lose more than a pound a day without dieting, from the very first day until you reach your ideal weight and figure. News of this "Super Pill" is literally sweeping the country. It's called Amitol and there has never been anything quite like it before.

"Flushes Calories Right Out Of Your Body"

What makes Amitol so thrilling and unique is its reported ability to flush calories right out of your body. Amitol is completely safe, it contains no drugs whatsoever. Its ingredients are derived solely from the Konjac root which grows primarily in Northern Japan.

Why the Konjac root? It has been used in Japan for over 1600 years to produce rapid and natural weight-loss! Japanese studies verify that Konjac root actually prevents fat producing calories from being absorbed into your system. They say it does this by surrounding much of the fats, proteins and carbohydrates you have eaten with a protective viscous coating which is then gently flushed out of your system. And according to Japanese research this produces absolutely amazing results.

And who can disagree! Amitol (although brand new to this country) is already being called by many people, "the most exciting weight-loss breakthrough of the century." In fact, everywhere there are reports of easy and fast weight-loss from formerly overweight people (in all walks of life) who are now slim, trim, and attractive again.

Company Offers Extraordinary Guarantee

You now can purchase Amitol direct from the North American distributor, and it comes with an extraordinary guarantee.

If you place your order now and then follow the simple instructions for a period of 30 days, you must be completely satisfied with the dramatic visible results or just return the empty container and Dyna Labs will immediately send back your entire purchase price. This guarantee applies regardless of your age or current weight level. What could be better than that! It's just that simple. If you've tried to lose weight before and failed you no longer have an excuse. Amitol is available, it's easy and it works without dieting!

Best of all, ordering Amitol is simple, fast, and reliable! Simply call Dyna Labs Toll Free: (1-800-441-5454) and order with your credit card. If you don't have a credit card Dyna Labs will also accept C.O.D. orders right over the phone! All orders are shipped immediately by UPS, which means no delay and no orders lost in the mail!

$19.95—30 day supply, or $35.95—60 day supply. Operators are standing by and will be glad to take your order. You can order 24 hrs. a day, 7 days a week! Please don't wait to call. You really do deserve to be thin!

the letter writer

... by ginny eades

Dear Chairman of the Board:

This letter is written to make you aware of a situation that presently exists at your company.

On a very regular basis, equipment owned by the company or the company's customers is sold, hidden from auditors or otherwise disposed of for substantial financial personal gain.

The individual orchestrating and benefiting from this activity is RJL, district manager.

Below are three examples of many, many occurrences that I have observed and have direct knowledge regarding.

1. On or about November, 1982, a piece of equipment owned by a customer was taken off the books of the corporation and sold to a competitor of your

I work for a large company that handles and stores large pieces of equipment for itself as well as its customers.

One of the district managers is running a "ring of thieves". I know a lot more than I should and, frankly, am very frightened of the man heading this crime group.

I would like to turn him in to the company but I am terrified of my identity being revealed.

Can you help me pull it off without anyone knowing who I am?

Sincerely
LS

Summer jobs available

Wayne County Executive William Lucas has announced that approximately 800 young adults living in Wayne County outside of Detroit and Downriver communities (which have their own programs) will have a chance to work this summer through the 1985 Michigan Youth Corps.

Lucas said: "These jobs are in addition to the 350 jobs being offered through the Wayne County Cooperative Extension Service and the Office of Public Works, and I would encourage all unemployed youth between the ages of 18 and 21 to apply at any Michigan Employment Security Commission (MES) or Department of Social Service office."

The state-wide program will provide jobs paying a minimum of $3.35 per hour for a total of 15,000 youth, pending final legislative approval.

CHARTER TOWNSHIP OF VAN BUREN SPECIAL BOARD MEETING MINUTES JUNE 3, 1985

Meeting called to order by Supervisor Hamilton at 7:00 p.m. Pledge of Alligence. Present: Hamilton, Dudick, Foster, Heifner, Hudson, Kuchta and O'Brien. Others in attendance: Attorney Cummings, Engineer Levine, Water & Sewer Commission Members, Public Service Director, Secretary Tadrick and audience of twelve.

Motion Heifner, support Hudson to approve Agenda as presented. Carried.

Supervisor explained Meeting was called to consider joining F.L.U.S.H. Litigation vs South Huron Valley Wastewater Control System (Mini-Sewer).

The Township was forced, by Court Order, to sign the current Contract. Van Buren is not under any pollution violations as are other communities. An environment impact study was never done on the downsized version or Super Sewer. The Township will not be involved until Phase III for which there is no federal funding.

Attorney Cummings stated by joining as an intervening plaintiff the Board will have more control over the litigation and will not be liable for legal fees even if F.L.U.S.H. should lose because the judge has already ruled the claim is not frivolous.

Sara Jane Privatera, a representative of F.L.U.S.H., informed the Board the lawsuit was filed because a federally mandated study on the environmental impact was not prepared and submitted for mini-sewer. Ms. Privatera urged the Township Board to join in the litigation to block the mini-sewer project because the Township has similar concerns.

Meeting recessed at 8 p.m. for Attorney Cummings to confer with F.L.U.S.H. Attorney Deborah LaBelle, by phone.

Meeting reconvened at 8:24 p.m.

Attorney Cummings stated F.L.U.S.H. hopes to file a motion for Summary Judgement by Wednesday, a Grand Rapids Firm is preparing a technical response to concerns of Judge Pratt.

Motion Foster, support Heifner that the Charter Township of Van Buren enjoin, as an intervening plaintiff, in the F.L.U.S.H. Litigation due to the fact that our concerns are the same, the concerns of F.L.U.S.H. are proper, this method would give us strength in our statement and there is much to state in the townships behalf in the public record. Carried.

That's a 'Mouthful' . . .

Per slice pledges netted $1,200 for the charity. After a two year absence from the musical arena, Ireland's Boomtown Rats are back in the rack with "In the Long Grass," a fine new LP full of excellently crafted pop songs. So who are the Boomtown Rats, you ask? OK, they're the group headed up by Bob Geldof. So who is ... ?

Geldof is the man responsible for forming the first all-star group to record for the purpose of feeding the starving people in Africa. They were called Band Aid, and the hit was "Do They Know It's Christmas?" He also helped organize the USA For Africa group. It has become his cause. Still brash, Geldof reportedly brought the superstar collection to tears with horror stories of what he had seen in Africa, later recoiling in the hypocrisy of the bowls of caviar in the studio.

Harry Belefonte, who has long been working towards the cause, said at the time with a half-smile on his face, "Incredible. It takes a white Irishman to show black Americans the right way to help the Africans" (at that time, USA For Africa was still scheduled to be an all-black affair).

Anyway, Geldof and the Boomtown Rats were once one of the finest musical groups to come out of Great Britain in the 1977 "revolution." Their last album wasn't (to me) nearly up to level of their first three LPs, but with "In the Long Grass" they've made up for it. Great modern rock, with a grittiness that sets them apart from the mainstream. And, if they tour, I have no qualms about saying GO! The Rats are one of the best acts ever to grace a stage. Geldof, the most energetic lead singer since Jagger.

American audiences may best know the Rats for the Springsteen-like rocker "Rat Trap," or for the semi-hit single of a few years ago, "I Don't Like Mondays." The latter was based on the true story of a California schoolgirl that took a gun one Monday morning, climbed on a roof and began firing randomly at her fellow students. When asked why, she replied "I don't like Mondays."

IN OTHER MUSIC NEWS... Cheap Trick, who used to be great, then got complacent and boring before getting great again last year (whew!) are recording their new album with producer Jack Douglas, who manned the helm for their first, self-titled rave-up LP... RUN FOR YOUR LIVES DEPT.: ELP, yes, Emerson, Lake and Palmer have decided to give it another try. Burnouts from the 70s will undoubtedly be happy, while the rest of us can just pray we never have to listen to it... Jerry Garcia of the Grateful Dead has recorded the theme music which will be used on CBS' new "Twilight Zone"... Meatloaf also has a new album out. It should be of great interest to the same people that are looking forward to the ELP release...

Lou Reed, one of the true legends of American Rock has evidently sold out... only to make one of the best television commercials currently on the tube. That's him, standing against the "don't walk" street sign in the heart of New York. As the strains of his biggest commercial hit, "Walk On the Wild Side" play, a terrifically-filmed montage of Village happenings is shown, including a sax player getting strange looks on a street corner and rushed "Lou Reed In Concert" signs. As the camera pans to Lou (who is never named in the video, as Adam Ant and Grace Jones were in last year's Honda commercial), holding a spiffy-looking Honda, who deadpans into the camera, saying only "why walk?" I have new respect for Madison Avenue. If anyone cares, the Go-Gos have broken up. Sort of a permanent "Vacation."

The best videos playing on MTV these days? Cyndi Lauper's crazy theme from the "Goonies" film, starring most of the top professional wrestlers and their managers, including Captain Lou Albano and classy Freddie "Pencil-neck geek" Blassie, as well as a cameo from producer Steven Spielberg. Also top-notch is the unexpected stomper from the Eurythmics, "Would I Lie To You?"

Bells Are Ringing

Ann Arbor Civic Theatre proudly presents Bells Are Ringing, a musical comedy written by Betty Comden and Adolph Green, with music by Jule Styne. Performances are at 8 p.m. on June 12, 13, 14, 15, with a Saturday matinee at 2:00 p.m. at the Power Center for the Performing Arts. Tickets are available at the Power Center Box Office the week of the show. Box office hours are Monday and Tuesday from 12-6; Wednesday thru Saturday from 12-8. For ticket information please call 662-7282 any time, or the Power Center Box Office at 763-3333 during Box Office hours.

Bells Are Ringing is a bouncy, light-hearted musical. Our heroine, Ella, is a switchboard operator at Susanswerphone, an answering service in New York City. Her only problem is that she becomes involved in the personal lives of her clients, especially a particular handsome, young playwright by the name of Jeffrey Moss, a playwright suffering from a severe case of writer's block. Ella also tries to help a frustrated dentist who would rather write songs than fill cavities, and a down and out actor with a Marlon Brando complex. Meanwhile at Susanswerphone, Sue the owner, adds a new client to her roster. Sandor is the chief executive of a sseudo-record company, which is in reality a bookie operation. Sandor invents a supposedly foolproof system of betting horses by ordering symphony records. All of the bets are handled unwittingly by the Susanswerphone operators who think they are taking record orders. An added comic element is the bungling police inspector who has Susanswerphone under surveillance as an alleged prostitution ring.

Like all good feeling Broadway musicals, the woman gets her man, (or vice versa), the bad guys go to jail, and as we suspect the rest of the cast dances and sings happily ever after.

Music America

A variety stage show is coming up at the Redford Theatre on Saturday, June 22, called "Music America". The show will feature native American music, from Barbershop to Jazz to Gospel & Dixieland. This will be a benefit for life sponsored by the Defenders of the Unborn group.

Tickets are $7.00 for adults and $3.00 for children 12 and under, with special rates for senior citizen groups. Organ music will begin at 7:30 p.m. with curtain up at 8:00 p.m. Tickets are on sale at Master's Candy store next to the Theatre which is on Lasher north of Grand River Avenue.

Cherry Hill ousted from regional's finals

Monroe Catholic Central burst Cherry Hill's baseball bubble in the championship round of the state Class B Regional Championship staged Saturday afternoon at Allen Park.

With Tony Samtina on the mound, the Huron Conference representative, shut out Cherry Hill 6-0 to advance to the quarter-final round of the state playoffs. Samtina allowed only three hits in going the distance. He struck out five and walked one.

Coach Ken Mientkiewicz sent to the mound for the championship game John Gould, who came on in the last inning of the semi-finals against Clawson to preserve an 8-7 Spartan victory. Gould got into trouble in the first inning against Monroe which scored four runs then added single tallies in the second and third innings for the victory.

"This is the farthest any Cherry Hill baseball team has gone in post season play," Mientkiewicz noted. "And they went further than anyone believed they could."

Mientkiewicz said that he was pleased with the team "but not the way the Allen Park officials hosted the playoffs."

"We were forced to wait around for approximately two hours and so was Clawson before we played our game," Mientkiewicz said. "There was an apparent mix-up of the time the first game was supposed to be played. It was scheduled for 10, but began at around 11:45. I believe that took a toll on us mentally and physically. I have registered a complaint with the MHSAA and so has the Clawson coach."

Cherry Hill brought the curtains down on a 15-12 over-all season. The Spartans' best record in recent years.

Senior righthander Mark Bayliss got credit for the 8-7 victory over Clawson as he tossed a 4-hitter, struck out two and walked eight for his 10th win in 15 starts.

Bayliss got into trouble in the seventh when Mientkiewicz decided on a pitching change af-

Skone's no match for 'A' leader

Softball showdown a 'dud'

When the dust cleared after previously undefeated Skone's Place clashed with Local 372 last week, it was obvious which of the two would reign as the Romulus Friday Division I circuit men's softball pacesetter - Local 372.

Striking for four runs in the first, second and seventh innings, Local 372 overwhelmed Skone's 17-9 for their fifth consecutive win of the campaign. Skone's vacated first place and moved into second with a 4-1 mark.

Raymond Burr belted two singles and a homer, while Mike Rafko, Schulte and Deslower also homered for the winners. Eric Babler had four hits for the losers. Dan Amann and Mark Barnomeau each had a single and a homer.

Johnson Smith Graphics solidified its hold on third place with a 12-3 victory over ECS, Inc. thanks to Don Fradette's bat. Fradette drilled a pair of home runs and a single while Ted Poppas had a pair of doubles and a single. Jeff Price checked in with three hits and Kevin Johnston collected a four-bagger and a single.

Dan Cunningham's three singles led the losers. Double Eagle Lounge picked up its second victory of the current campaign as it edged Federal Mogul, 13-12. Dennis Finrock had a homer and single for the winners while Mark Bratcher collected a single, double and triple and Steve Bird finished with a pair of singles and a double.

Federal's got a pair of hits from Bob Fitzgivens and Dennis Wesley.

Over in Division I, Captain Nemo's maintains a slim one-victory margin over Bailey and Morgan Associates who are putting pressure on the frontrunner.

Nemo's overpowered A.C. Express 14-3 to remain atop of the standings as Bill Bratcher came through with four hits and Ken McMann had a pair of doubles for the winners. Jay Barton and Ron Buckley split six hits between them. Of the four A-C hits, Bill Cichonski had one and Bill Henson the other.

An 8-run second inning lifted Nemos past Mad Anthony's earlier in the campaign. Tom McCloskey and Bratcher each had three hits for the winners. Winning pitcher Jay Barton gave up eight hits, two of them to Stan Brown.

Morgan's stayed in the title chase with a convincing 10-4 victory over St. Lawrence. Pete Coleman laced two hits and Dave Simms had four for the winners.

3 out of 4 victories are pretty good

After failing to capitalize on bases-loaded situations three times and losing a 10-4 decision to Wayne Party Store, Wayne Video-Speedy Printing came back to win its next three games.

Wayne Video edged Lochinvar Water Heater 9-7 as winning pitcher Sue Mifsud got hitting support from Mary Porter and Ann Ward who hammered three and two singles, respectively.

Speedy Printing-Wayne Video then ran up against Jake's Lounge and the contest turned into a Speedy rout. Speedy claimed a 20-3 victory over their rivals as Mifsud again posted the triumph this time with Porter slamming a homer. Ward turned in with three singles and Rhonda Theido belted four hits, including a double.

Speedy ended the week with an 8-2 victory over Tastee Freez, again with Mifsud on the mound. Porter tripled in a pair of runs.

Speedy had ample opportunities to beat Wayne Party Store but failed to capitalize on the situation. The losers loaded the bases three times but couldn't come up with the clutch hits.

All-Area Is Coming

With the last of the area high school baseball teams falling at the wayside, the Associated Newspapers' sports staff has yet another task before it can write the final chapter to the 1985 campaign. The task is to assemble the coveted All-Area line-up.

Spartans

ter Clawson had closed the gap to 8-7. With one-away and a runner on third, Bayliss was removed for Gould who faced Dave Bergess. Bergess sliced a long fly ball to left, allowing the run to score. With two away, Gould got the next batter on a harmless grounder, ending the game.

Clawson scored a run in the second, but the Spartans got it back and built a 3-1 edge in the bottom of the third as Mike Thibeault led off with a single, moved to second when Rob Bryer also singled. With men on first and second, Paul Oster bunted and the two baserunners managed to score on a throwing error, with Oster stopping at third. Gould then singled him home.

Cherry Hill widened the margin in the fourth with a 3-run outburst. With one-away, Mike Sasseen was safe on an error, stole second and scored when Thibeault singled him home. Bryer was struck by a wild pitch and Oster, with the hit-and-run on, came through with a 2-run base hit.

A two-run sixth inning proved to be the margin of victory for the Spartans who put those runs on the scoreboard with one away. Bryer walked and Oster singled him to second. Coach Mientkiewicz believed the situation called for the hit-and-run and again it proved fruitful as Bayliss connected for a single, driving in the Spartans' final two runs of the game and the season.

Romulus 'A' women's softball leader
Caesar's makes it 9 straight

Erupting for seven runs in the first inning, undefeated Little Caesar's buried Lanzo Construction in an abbreviated five inning game, 15-0, to stretch its winning streak to nine and remain the team to catch in the Romulus Women's Softball League.

While her teammates were hammering out 17 hits, winning pitcher Janis Coleman scattered four to chalk up the victory. Margaret Savage knocked in four runs, while Brenda Kryski, Kathy Bartz and Sue Fitzpatrick each had two hits.

Walter's received a scare from sixth place Senate Coney Island and survived 3-1 thanks to Laura Umin's pitching and Candy Whit's bat. Whit belted a pair of singles and drove in one of two second inning runs while Umin was tough when it counted. Chaundra Brown, who gave up eight hits, took the loss. Becky Parr homered off of Umin and Debbie Lefler collected two singles.

Suburban Oil abruptly ended Telegraph Bar's seven-game winning streak as they erased a 1-0 deficit in the bottom of the fourth with three runs and went on to win 5-1. Telegraph wasted Cathy Odom's three hits - all singles. Diane Scarborough was the losing pitcher. She gave up 10 hits, including three to Barb Calleja who singled, doubled and tripled. She also drove in two of the five runs. Linda Blakemore came through with a single and an RBI for the winners who received a three-hit pitching effort from Sue Henry.

Middlebelt Bar continued its quest to find its first win of the campaign as Benny's Salad Bowl topped their rivals 13-3. Carol Minda coughed up eight hits including a single and a double to Jane Marshall.

Benny's amassed 18 hits, including three from Deanna Delber, Tracey Barnett and two each from Tammy Dougherty, Carol Minda and Vickie Whaley.

Glass Mug continued to play .500 (4-4) ball at the expense of Coughlin Transportation. With Denise Slater on the mound, the winners came back from a 4-2 deficit to score twice in the bottom of the fourth and three times in the fifth to edge their rivals, 7-4. Lisa Molman had two hits, both singles and Kathy Boatright had a single and a double for the winners. Denise Richards knocked in two runs and has a single.

Slater gave up a total of 13 hits, including three apiece to Lori Gracykz and Vicki Brainard. Sharon Howie doubled and Pat Lucklear turned in with a pair of singles for the losers.

In the meantime, second place Century 21 lost ground on the frontrunners as they dropped a 12-6 decision to fourth place J & D Auto which struck for five runs in each of the first and third innings to chalk up its fifth win in eight starts. Renee Harmon got to winning pitcher, Cindy Burnice, for three hits and Donna Wegini chased in two runs for the losers.

Debbie Hackett, who yielded 16 hits, was tagged for a triple and double by Ginny Hawthorne while Kathy England collected a pair of singles and a double. Lori Newman checked in with three hits, including two doubles for the winners.

Greg's Lounge No.1 spotted Lanzo's eight runs in three innings before it decided to settled down, however, the margin proved to be insurmountable as the Westlanders fell 10-5. Pam Miser laced two hits off of winner Melanie Phillips who gave up a total of seven hits. Debbie Reno had her problems with Robin Johnson who accounted for three of Lanzo's 13 hits.

Over in Division II, Walter's Bar is looking down at the rest of the field after winning eight in a row.

Kuhlman, Sauter share 'Challenge Cup' lead

The 1983 Flat Rock Speedway Champion Dave Kuhlman and veteran stock car driver Jim Sauter are tied for the point lead in the WCXI-Michigan Challenge Cup heading into race Number II of the three-race series on Friday evening, July 5, at Flat Rock Speedway.

Each driver has accumulated 24 points to date. The Memorial Day final 50-lap event was postponed due to weather, and will be run as part of the program on July 5.

Kuhlman set fast time and finished third in the odd-numbered qualifiers' 50-lap event on Memorial Day, while Sauter was very impressive in his first-ever outing at Flat Rock's quarter-mile oval by grabbing the old-numbered qualifiers 50-lap win behind the wheel of Bob Fox's Camaro. Due to commitments with his ASA schedule, Sauter will be unable to compete at Flat Rock on July 5.

The activities for race Number II of the Challenge Cup will include a dash, heats and three 50-lap features for late models. The format of odd numbered and even numbered qualifier 50-lap events will be used, with the top 10 finishers from each event moving to the final 50-lap feature.

In addition to the previously postponed final 50-lap late model event, the 20-lap street stock feature that also fell victim to the weather on Memorial Day will be run on July 5.

A total of $18,890 in contingency awards and lap money has been posted for the three-race series. The awards and the $10 per lap will be for the final 50-lap events only. A purse of over $20,000 has been set for the July 5 events.

Plan to be a part of an exciting evening of racing during round two of the Challenge Cup. Four 50-lap late model features and a 20-lap street stock event will provide the action.

The front gates will open 5 p.m., with time trials at 6 p.m. and racing will start at 7:30 p.m. on Friday, July 5. The track is located one mile south of Flat Rock on Telegraph Road (U.S. 24).

Hospitals to offer summer speech, hearing therapy

For children with speech and language problems, summer vacation is not only a time for fun, it is a time when their regular school-based speech therapy may be interrupted. Annapolis and Beyer Memorial Hospitals will each offer a Pediatric Summer Speech Program again this year to help children improve and maintain the progress they have made during the school year. The program is also offered for preschool aged children who need to begin receiving therapy.

The hospitals are now accepting referrals and registrations for the eight-week program, which begins June 17 and runs through Aug. 9. Half-hour treatment sessions will be held at the hospitals two or three times a week depending upon each child's needs. Hospital-based professional speech pathologists work with the children individually or in groups, again depending on the needs of the child. Referrals can be made by school pathologists, other professionals, or parents who are interested in enrolling their child.

For information on Annapolis Hospital classes, call 467-4134. Beyer Memorial Hospital class and fee information is available at 484-2445. Once registered, each participant will be scheduled for an intake evaluation to determine his or her particular needs. The program is open to all preschool and school-age children. However, class size is limited, so registration should be made as soon as possible by calling the hospital you choose for the treatment.

"Many of the children in our summer program receive speech and language therapy at school during the regular school year," noted Mary Lou Harrington, supervisor of speech and hearing services for both Annapolis and Beyer Memorial. "However, during summer vacation, many children must interrupt their treatment. That gap sometimes makes it difficult for a child to maintain the progress achieved during the school year."

The goal of our program is consistent and uninterrupted treatment. Our professional staff continues the work begun during the school year by school speech pathologists or initiate therapy for children who have never received therapy.

"During the summer program, the children can maintain the progress they've made during the school year, and many make significant strides in reaching the goals of their treatment."

Children are treated for voice, fluency, articulation and language problems. While many are referred by school pathologists or other professionals, parents may make the referrals themselves. The Auxiliaries of both Beyer and Annapolis are assisting with funding by sponsoring 10 children at each hospital for those families needing help in defraying fees.

Annapolis Hospital is located at 33155 Annapolis Ave. in Wayne, Beyer Memorial is located at 135 S. Prospect in Ypsilanti. Both are units of Peoples Community Hospital Authority.

Careful search

Committee begins quest for new WCCC president

The Wayne County Community College Presidential Search Committee is moving rapidly but expeditiously in its nationwide search for a president.

The committee was formed in response to the preliminary work done by consultants Dr. Shirley Chater and Dr. Ron Stead, who suggested that it represent all possible constituencies to ensure broad participation.

It consists of four members of Wayne County College Board of Trustees, two faculty members, one student, one representative appointed from administration, one from staff and one from the community.

The committee is balanced in age, sex, race. More importantly, however, it is in complete agreement on its purpose. That is, to find the best possible person to move WC³ into fulfilling its potential—a future of innovative and excellent educational service to the WHOLE community, especially to the deserving and most needy.

Chuck Stockwell, a member of WC³ Board of Trustees and an administrator from Wayne-Westland school district, was appointed chairman of the committee. Juanita Ford, trustee from Hamtramck, who has been a WC³ board member for nine years, was appointed secretary for the committee. The other two trustee appointees are Ollie McKenney, Jr., a director for the City of Detroit Employment and Training Department, and Dr. Anna Mae Powell, Detroit Fifth District, a professor of rhetoric and composition at Oakland University and Wayne State University.

WC³ faculty representatives are Dr. Thomas H. Randolph, counselor/instructor, and Dr. Harvey Hershey, professor of sociology, who has been at WC³ since its beginning.

Glynetta Durrah, former student and present administrative secretary, and Amanda Davis, coordinator of records and registration, represent the two unions at WC³. And the student body appointed its Student Government president, Charles H. Francis to be their representative. To round out the committee, a member of the Greater Detroit Chamber of Commerce from Grosse Pointe Shores, Barbara B. Gattorn, was selected to oversee the community interests.

The Presidential Search Committee will be working during the next two months to complete its task of selecting the five top candidates for the presidency of WC³.

Buckle up in July

Don't wait until July 1 to buckle up — get in the habit now — it could save your life. That's the advice from Secretary of State Richard Austin who reminds all motorists that Michigan's new safety belt law goes into effect July 1.

Austin said that from his own personal observation on the highway, more motorists have begun wearing belts since the law was passed. "Wearing a belt is a no-cost, simple way of substantially cutting highway deaths and injuries — a good habit to get into," he said. Six other states — New York, New Jersey, Illinois, Missouri, New Mexico and Indiana, in addition to Michigan's neighbor, Ontario, now have safety belt laws.

If you're a music fan of the 50's and 60's, I've got to tell you about Mugger's Lounge, 28949 Joy Road (just east of Midlebelt) in Westland. Wildkatz, kicks out the jams nightly through Sunday, June 16, sweeping their way through 20 years of classic gold. Naturally enough, their sets include some of the best 50's rockers from Jerry Lee Lewis, the Motown Sound, the British Invasion to the Allman Brothers. On deck, the bad Dialtones (another great solid gold group) is set to hit the stage beginning Tuesday, June 18. New owners, Bob Shonce and Frank Muggerdichian, Jr., have completely remodeled the facility and are working hard to erase a negative image the former, Token Lounge had created. Their plans are to simply "create an atmosphere where people can just come and enjoy great oldies music and not worry about rowdies spoiling the fun."

New business in Westland, Linden Medical Supply, at 962 N. Newburgh (Marquette Mall), opened last week. Store manager Lon Hetchler and his professional staff can help provide you with the products and answers to relieve your medical situation. Common home care equipment and supplies at Linden Medical Supply include wheelchairs, oxygen, ostomy, hospital beds, scooters and blood pressure kits. Their services include sales, rentals and delivery. Store hours are Monday through Friday 9 to 5. For more information call 326-2900.

While you're romping through Romulus, driving west on Goddard toward town, try this: roll your windows down and inhale deeply. No, this is not a yoga exercise, but the tantalizing aroma of ribs being barbecued outdoors on open pits at Hall's Southern Style BBQ, 35947 Goddard Road. That's what I call real broadcast advertising. Check out their coupon in this week's paper.

If you haven't seen much of Chuck Daniels at his real estate business, you may find him out "golfing around" at Par Golf Range, 31825 Ecorse Road in Romulus. Chuck is the new owner of the driving range and mini-golf facility.

Speaking of golf, Glen Russel, president of the Canton Boosters, says, "Thank you." The Boosters raised $2,000 for Canton athletes from their annual golf outing at Fellows Creek. Nice job!

A little bit of country ... and a whole lot of fun! The Canton Country Festival open this Friday at 4 p.m. and runs through Sunday. Among the many things to watch for include the Klazz, a.k.a. break dancers, at 8:15 p.m. Friday. A donkey basketball game is set to begin at 4 p.m. Don't forget to enter dad in the "Father of the Year" contest. Activities for this year's festival will be held in the area of Canton Center Road and Cherry Hill. Don't miss a thing.

My buddy, ex-Tiger Jim Northrop, will be at the Westland Center this Friday from 4 until 6 p.m. to sign autographs and pose for photos. On Saturday, Gates (the Gator) Brown will appear from 1 until 3 p.m. Come on out and bring the kids!

Belleville adds a new business: Vervadi's Produce at 49371 I-94 Service Drive near the Lemon Tree Apartments. New owners Tammy and Andy Vervardi want to be your source for fresh fruit and vegetables, as well as hanging plants. Now through June 30th, Strawberries are on sale for just 65 cents a pint and watermelon just 19 cents a pound.

Words about advertising: "The American standard of living is due in no small measure to the imaginative genius of advertising, which not only creates and sharpens demand, but also, by its impact upon the competitive process, stimulates the never-ceasing quest for improvement in quality of the product. —Adlai E. Stevenson
